The Star Spangled Banner

UNDER the starry flag that waves over this fair land, every citizen is a king, and there is no wealth and fame, position and power, that is not open to every child of the Republic.—W. A. Fraser.

THE Star Spangled Banner was designated as the national anthem by an Act of Congress, approved on March 3, 1931. It was written by Francis Scott Key after he had witnessed the British bombardment of Fort Mifflin in Baltimore, in 1814. The words of this stirring song were sung to the tune of "Anacraon in Heaven" and immediately became popular and it was regarded as the national anthem though it was not made legally so until 1931.

Mrs. Charles Beck Goes—

(Continued from Page One) years old when he arrived in the United States with his parents; they met as guests at a party in Lawrence, Mass., and married there, and as he says, "I married her because I loved her and not because she happened to be an Englishwoman."

Mrs. Beck and Herbert visited in Bradford, Yorkshire, while he was a baby, more than 30 years ago. Mr. Beck has never been back to England, but has been sick to England, where he is a painter by trade. Mr. Beck came to Palm Beach county many years ago to retire but circumstances led him to acquire an interest in a novelty store at Belle Glade and later to take over the whole interest, which he has operated for several years, assisted by his wife.

Vacationists returning daily are glad to get back home.

VACATION TIME

Spend it in Florida.

All winter long we've been working. Discriminating tourists wanted our sunshine, climate, outdoor facilities, so we've served them. A fastidious state and nation wanted our fruits, vegetables, other agricultural products, so we've raised them, put them on the market.

Now it's vacation time. Let's spend it in Florida. We can relax and rest in our own home community—can learn more about this city, its appeals, its interesting features. We can learn more of all Florida, too.

Tourists pay millions each year to enjoy Florida, the "playground of America," so, let's play here this summer ourselves!
